Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

It's November! As Catholics, that means more than enjoying the crisp Autumn air and breaking out our winter habits! The Catholic Church has dedicated November to the Holy Souls in Purgatory. For the faithful, that means it's a time of prayer and sacrifice for those who have gone before us.

One great saint who practiced this devotion with great fervor was St. Padre Pio. Padre Pio was a Capuchin Franciscan who was known for his humility and holiness. He wove his prayers for departed souls into every aspect of his life. As a priest, he offered Holy Masses for them. He prayed rosaries, personal prayers, and offered confessions for them. And he encouraged others to do the same.

Padre Pio was once visited by a soul in purgatory who asked him for help. The man told him the story of his death and that he needed a Holy Mass to be said for him in order for him to go to heaven. Padre Pio was able to verify his story and offered a Holy Mass for the repose of his soul. And this wasn't the only time that one of the faithful departed appealed to Padre Pio for prayer. It's no wonder that he had such faith in this devotion!

Join your own Holy Masses, prayers, and sacrifices this month with Catholics everywhere, and pray for those who can no longer pray for themselves!

Viva Cristo Rey!
