Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,
November Celebrations.

Two days. Two celebrations. One beautiful Mystery. Every November, the Catholic Church celebrates two important days, one immediately following the other: All Saints' Day on November 1 and All Souls' Day on November 2. Their names sound similar, but they have very different purposes. Together, they reveal something extraordinary about the Church, our relationship with those who have gone before us, and the mystery we celebrate at every Mass. All Saints' Day is a solemnity honoring everyone who has attained heaven—not only the saints officially canonized by the Church, but also the countless holy men, women, and children whose names are known to God alone. It reminds us that holiness is not reserved for a select few. Every one of us is called to become a saint. And the saints are not merely figures from the distant past. They are living members of Christ's Body who intercede for us before God. At Mass, we acknowledge this heavenly communion when we join the angels and saints in singing: "Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts..." This hymn reminds us that our earthly worship is united with the worship of heaven. At every Mass, we join a heavenly chorus that never ceases to praise God.

The following day, the Church commemorates all the faithful departed, particularly those undergoing purification before entering the fullness of heaven. Unlike All Saints' Day, when we celebrate those already enjoying the beatific vision, All Souls' Day is especially dedicated to praying for the dead.

But why do Catholics pray for the dead?

Because death does not sever the bonds of charity that unite the members of Christ's Body. The Church teaches that our prayers, especially the offering of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, can assist the souls undergoing purification. At every Mass, the priest prays for the faithful departed. In Eucharistic Prayer II, for example, he asks God: "Remember also our brothers and sisters who have fallen asleep in the hope of the resurrection..." Requiem Aeternam dona eis, Domine. Viva Cristo Rey!
