Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,
What is Peter's Pence?

It is an offering that may be small, but is of great symbolic value:

It expresses the sense of belonging to the Church and love and trust for the Holy Father. It is a tangible sign of communion with Him, as Peter's Successor, and also of attention to the needs of the most disadvantaged, for whom the Pope always cares.

SOME HISTORICAL BACKGROUND In the journey of the Church.

The Peter's Pence, as a donation to the Successor of Peter, took on a stable form in the seventh century, with the conversion of the Anglo-Saxons, in connection with the feast of the Apostle Saint Peter, to whom Jesus entrusted His Church. It then grew during subsequent centuries, with the adherence of other European peoples to Christianity, always as a contribution of gratitude and devotion to the Pope, as an expression of the unity of the Church, and of ecclesial co-responsibility.

The term “Peter's Pence” was used since Medieval times to identify the censo, or the annual contribution paid to the Holy See by the States or local lordships under the sovereignty of the Pope. With the Protestant Reformation and the end of the feudal system, these relations between the European monarchies and the Pope came to an end. In the modern age, shortly before the end of the Papal State (1870) and the loss of income from territorial possessions, a surprising initiative to offer material aid to the Pope arose throughout Europe and overseas. This affectionate reaction of Catholics was of great comfort and encouragement to the Pope. Also, in that period of crisis, the Holy Father took care of the most afflicted (we recall, for example, the disastrous earthquake in Croatia in 1881), allocating a part of Peter's Pence. Indeed, the support received by the Pope could not but be shared with those who found themselves in a situation of grave need, thus expressing the solicitude of a father who cares for all his children: to receive in order to give, and to give to those who are most in need at that time.
