Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,
The Holy Eucharist is the “source and summit” of our lives, as St. John Paul II often reminded the world. In these three years of Eucharistic Revival, it would be good to look to the example of the Saints to learn about their devotion to Christ in the Holy Eucharist, and how we can best emulate their devotion.

Saint Tarcisus: As relayed by tradition, Tarcisus was a young Roman boy who lived during the reign of Emperor Valerian. As the early Church was being persecuted, the faithful were forced to worship in secret. One day, after a Mass which Tarcisus was present, the bishop asked if a member of the congregation would be willing to carry the Blessed Sacrament to their fellow Christians who were imprisoned, as it was too dangerous a task for the clergy. Tarcisus bravely volunteered. After some instruction which entailed the necessity to keep the Blessed Sacrament safe at all costs, Tarcisus ventured off on his journey. En route, some of Tarcisus' friends approached him as they needed another boy for their game. Hearing Tarcisus' negative reply and upon seeing his sense of urgency, the boys demanded to know what their friend was hiding from them. As their incessant requests were being refused, the boys concluded he must be hiding something which the Christians considered to be sacred, so they shouted that Tarcisus was a Christian. This resulted in the young Christian being violently beaten. A Christian soldier stumbled upon the scene, and intervened. The heroic boy died from his bruises in the soldier's arms, but not before asking the soldier to protect Jesus in the Eucharist and to bring Holy Communion to the imprisoned Christians.

This young saint reminds us that Jesus is truly present in the Eucharist. Like Tarcisus, we should reverence Him in the Blessed Sacrament and protect the Eucharist at all costs, even if it means laying down our lives for Him.

Viva Cristo Rey!
