Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,
Christ is Risen! Alleluia!
Many Catholics do not know that Pentecost is one of the most important feasts our Church celebrates. Until the changes in the liturgy after Vatican II in 1970, Pentecost had an octave, just like Easter. In fact, the Octave of Pentecost ranked higher than the Octave of Christmas in the Church’s calendar. Furthermore, the Sundays that we now call Ordinary Time (as in “numbered” or “ordinal” time, not “boring” and “normal” time) used to be “Sundays after Pentecost”: the entire season was a reminder of the importance of Pentecost! While the octave is gone and the church labels Sundays differently, we can still see the importance that the Church has traditionally assigned to Pentecost in the option for an extended vigil with four readings, echoing the Easter Vigil. Pentecost also retains a sequence, a beautiful piece of poetry that reflects on the feast and assist us in opening our hearts more fully to the graces God showers upon us as we celebrate the feast day.

By giving new life through the power of the Holy Spirit to his Apostles and disciples, God did something incredible: he breathed life into what we now call the Church. The sequence fittingly ends with the words, “Give them virtue’s sure reward; // Give them your salvation, Lord; // Give them joys that never end. Amen. // Alleluia.” As God fills us with the gift of the Holy Spirit, we should desire nothing less than salvation and eternal joy.
Viva Cristo Rey!
