Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

The Eucharist is the “source and summit” of our lives, as St. John Paul II often reminded the world. In these three years of Eucharistic Revival, it would be good to look to the example of the Saints to learn about their devotion to Christ in the Eucharist, and how we can best emulate their devotion.

(Part 3) Saint Imelda Lambertini ((1322-1333). Suddenly a sweet fragrance, as of roses, filled the air and was seemingly wafted throughout the monastery. The nuns, tracing its source, returned to the chapel, and there, to their astonishment, beheld a Sacred Host suspended in the air above the head of the weeping maiden. The priest who had just celebrated Mass came, paten in hand, and, with holy impatience, awaited developments. The Host slowly descended, rested on the paten, and from the hands of the chaplain Imelda received her Eucharistic God.

The transport of love which took possession of her little heart at this longed-for moment was too great for a finite being. As she took Jesus into her heart, Imelda entered into a state of ecstatic prayer. The child remained kneeling as the nuns left chapel to allow her more time to pray. When they returned for her, they found her just as they had left her, but her body was lifeless.

After receiving Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, Imelda, proving her early words to be prophetic, died of pure love and joy.

The feast day of Blessed Imelda Lambertini is celebrated on May 12th. She is the patroness of First Communicants and of making a holy, fervent First Communion. Her purity of heart is a beautiful reminder that, to be truly happy, we must love and desire God above all things.

Blessed Imelda's incorrupt body is kept in Bologna, Italy, at the Church of San Sigismondo, beneath the wax effigy of her likeness.

Blessed Imelda, pray for us to love Jesus in the Holy Eucharist as much as you did.

Viva Cristo Rey!
