Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,
Christ is Risen! Alleluia!
Habemus Papam!

I write today with great joy to extend our heartfelt congratulations on the election of His Holiness, Pope Leo XIV—formerly Cardinal Robert Prevost—as the 267th Successor of Saint Peter and the new spiritual leader of the Roman Catholic Church.

Cardinal Prevost was chosen as the first American Pope in history.

This historic moment fills the hearts of the faithful with hope. Pope Leo XIV brings with him a legacy of pastoral care, deep theological insight, and a sincere devotion to justice, unity, and service. His choice of the name Leo—evoking the wisdom, courage, and vision of past pontiffs—signals a papacy ready to meet the challenges of our time with strength and compassion.

In this Easter season of the Jubilee Year Pilgrimage of Hope, we call upon the Holy Spirit to guide our new Holy Father, Pope Leo XIV, and look forward to the future with renewed faith, hope and love in Jesus. May we be blessed and inspired with all graces as we pray for our Holy Father and assist him, to bring the Good News forth into the world.

Viva Cristo Rey!
