Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

The Eucharist is the “source and summit” of our lives, as St. John Paul II often reminded the world. In these three years of Eucharistic Revival, it would be good to look to the example of the Saints to learn about their devotion to Christ in the Eucharist, and how we can best emulate their devotion.

(Part 2) Saint Imelda Lambertini ((1322-1333). At the early age of nine she entered the Dominican convent near Bologna. According to the Dominican Sisters of Saint Cecilia in Nashville, Tenn., “It seems she was well loved by the sisters, who allowed her to wear the Dominican habit, to pray with them, and to follow their way of life to the extent that a little girl would be able to do while still remaining a child.”

The one great desire of her life in those days was to receive within her breast her sacramental God. Custom had established the age of twelve as the proper time for little ones to receive First Holy Communion, and the convent chaplain would not listen to a suggested deviation from this rule. Frequently did the child beseech her confessor for permission to approach the divine banquet table, only to be repulsed.

On May the 12th, 1333, the Vigil of the Ascension, the community partook of the Eucharist in a body, leaving Imelda alone in her choir stall. Her frail body shook with emotion, tears flowed down her babe-like face, and with a voice that trembled with grief she asked to be fed upon the Body of her Lord. No attention was paid to her. The Mass came to a close. The religious left the choir. But Imelda remained behind uncomforted. Suddenly a sweet fragrance, as of roses, filled the air and was seemingly wafted throughout the monastery...

Viva Cristo Rev!
